Gym Masses

President: Fr. Jim Cassidy

Today is Earth Sunday and our worship is filled with praise and joy as we Celebrate Creation...the Cosmic Story! With scripture, poetry, prayer, music and images of the natural world we commit ourselves to the care of this Blueboat Home. Our story is told through the poetic voices of Julie Madden, JP Fitzgibbons, Tina Moulder, Ivy Watson and Jack Sonnek. Music is provided by the SJA Choir with Anna Vagle and Tommy Barbarella, the Children's Choir directed by Seth Boyd and musicians Peter Johnson, Lee Vague and Dik Hedlund and special guest saxophonist, Rich Manik. Thanks to Fred Vagle for the visual artistry. Blessed Earth Day everyone!

Our SJA EcoSpirits will be in the Welcome Center and school hallway after Mass with information and actions to protect our sacred Earth, including a plastic pledge for you to sign! Thank you to our EcoSpirits ministry.

Pastor's 2 Cents From: Fr Jim DeBruycker

I had an eventful week. Saturday, I went to a gathering looking at the history of Black Catholics in the US with presenters led by our own Cynthia Baily Manns as keynote speaker. Among other things, it proved Black Catholics do exist and as obvious as this sounds, personal experience at St. Leonard's has indicated that people are surprised there was such a person as a Black Catholic. Whenever I told someone I was pastor of St. Leonard of Port Maurice, the first question was, "Where is that?" When I told them it was created by Archbishop Murray for the Negro community, as Black Catholics were called in the 1930s, along with St. Martin's in North Minneapolis, the response was "Really? I thought all Blacks were Baptist."

The more important issue (besides being unaware of their existence) was learning how they were treated. Faced with racial prejudice, at times they were denied communion for fear the white parishioners in the congregation would be upset. As great a parish as St. Leonard of Port Maurice was (and is), it gave other parishes the supposed excuse to refuse black people joining their parish by telling them they had to go to St. Leonard's or St. Martin's "where they belong". Fr. Farrell, the founder of St. Joan of Arc, was one of those who sent people away, as most of us know.

This gathering is just the beginning of looking at the Church's attitudes and actions relating to race and discrimination. To be able to change, one needs to know what has happened. Knowledge is power and this gathering was the beginning of this knowledge. Next is what needs to be done.

On Sunday evening we had our annual 'Eucharistic Extravaganza,' a multifaceted experience of what Holy Communion is all about. Over forty children preparing for First Communion, with parents in tow, learned how bread and wine is made, had supper with Jesus, heard stories from Moses about Passover and liberation, took a tour of the Church and then they even got to dig in the drawers of the Church sacristy. It ended with a family spaghetti & meatball dinner plus ice cream. It received the ultimate accolade from one of the young participants who proclaimed, "I thought it was going to be really boring, you know like when old people talk about their broken washing machines, but it was really fun!" Thanks to all the volunteers who pulled off something that wasn't boring, this is one of SJA's best events. We look forward to First Communion beginning in a couple of weeks.

Finally, the Gospel says Jesus, is the Good Shepherd who sees no distinction between his sheep; lets us try that.

Guts and Gratitude: A Widower's Cabaret: On Sunday, May 5, our speaker is performer Joseph St. James. Make Someone's Day! Studies have shown that the power of even a smile has long ranging effects on the mood of not only the recipient of a smile, but the sender as well! Improve someone's mood this week, as well as your own, by 'committing' random acts of smiling!

Mental Well-being is About Your Quality of Life: About 80% of us struggle with mental well-being at some point, whether we have a mental illness or not. There are many things we can do to lessen some of the burdens: cultivate connections that are important to you; connect with nature to reduce stress and improve attention; walk or play outside; sleep, exercise, and eat healthy. Good choices for overall health also matters for mental well-being. Our bodies and brains are connected which means our physical and mental well-being are also connected!
