Welcome

We Welcome You Wherever You Are On Your Journey

Gym Masses

Presider: Fr. Jim DeBruycker

Our pre-mass speaker this morning is Julie Madden, director of SJA Peace and Justice ministries and liaison to our SJA Outreach Fund. Julie will speak on "SJA: 2020." Thank you to all in this community who lead and amplify our witness for God's justice and peace in the world. You are a blessing!

This morning our sung prayer will be led by our own musicians, Tommy Barbarella, Christina Pawlowski, Lee Vague, Dik Hedlund and Peter Johnson. Thank you as always Christina, Lee and Peter for your inspired solos. We are grateful for your presence on our SJA music staff!

Family Mass

As we think about Jesus' call to love our enemies, we have a dramatic reading from the story The Forgiveness Garden by Lauren Thompson. Together, we build our Forgiveness Garden, which we will use throughout Lent. Thanks to our readers Daniluz Cespedes-Schueller and Emily Pechacek. Join us at 9:45 or 11:45 for our family-centered Masses.

From: Julie Madden, Director of Peace and Justice

Today I am glad and grateful to reflect on "St. Joan of Arc: 2020" in our gym liturgies and to look at the road ahead on our collective journey, from the perspective of our peace and justice ministries. It is also an opportunity to lift up the principles of Catholic Social Teaching, which I will do at the drop of a hat, often without encouragement (I'm fun at parties).

These principles are drawn from more than 125 years of documents written by church leaders in response to global issues that threatened the lives and the dignity of God's people. Over the years, these principles have guided our perspective on seemingly insurmountable crises including economic justice and the rights of workers, war and nonviolence, climate change, and care for creation.

The principles of CST were my point of entry into the Church and continue to be the lens that makes sense to me as I try to make sense of the world. In short form, they are:

- Human Dignity: Each of us is created in the image and likeness of our loving God. This is our foundation.
- Common Good: We realize our human dignity in community. How we organize our society – in economics and politics, in law and policy – directly affects human dignity and the capacity of individuals to grow in community.
- Option for the Poor: The moral test of our society is how we treat our most vulnerable members.
- Rights and Responsibilities: Every person has a fundamental right to what is needed to live in dignity – life, food, shelter, health care, education, employment. We also have a right and a responsibility to participate in our public life together.
- Role of Government: The state has a positive moral function to promote human dignity, protect human rights and build the common good.
- Economic Justice: The economy must serve people, not the other way around. All workers have the right to decent and fair wages and safe working conditions. No one is allowed to amass excessive wealth when others lack the basic necessities of life.
- Stewardship of God's Creation: We are called to protect people and the planet and to live our faith in right relationship with all of God's creation.
- Promotion of Peace and Disarmament: Peace is not just the absence of war. Peace is the fruit of justice.
- Global Solidarity: We are called to work together for the good our global family in an interdependent world.

Let these words settle in you for a moment. Then, let's embrace these principles, embody them, and be a light to one another and to the world in 2020. Know that you are needed on this journey together, and thank you for being here.
