Welcome

We Welcome You Wherever You Are On Your Journey

Gym Masses

Presider: Fr. James Cassidy

Pre-mass Speaker: Mel Duncan, co-founder of the Nonviolent Peaceforce, will share the story of his calling as a peacemaker. Based in Minneapolis and Paris, NVP is an unarmed, trained, paid civilian protection force in areas of global conflict. Mel, thank you for your sharing your witness as a powerful channel of God's peace. Mel will also join us after the 11 am mass for further discussion about NVP. Please join us!

We welcome singer-songwriter and social justice advocate, Ann Reed, to sing at our gym liturgies today. Do not miss Ann's CD release concert tonight at 7 pm in the gym. Doors will open at 6:15, all guests must arrive through the gym entry on 3rd Ave. There are a few tickets left, so purchase them after today's services. Thank you as always, Ann!

Family Masses

Wise woman of the church, Hildegard of Bingen, comes to remind us that we are all "living sparks" of God's love, coming from God as daylight comes from the sun. Thanks to Jeanne Ford for bringing us Hildegard's story. Join us in the church at 9:45 or 11:45 am for our joy-filled liturgies!

Celebrating Arm In Arm In Africa from Fr. James Cassidy

In the past year, our nation and our parish have heard a great deal about a variety of building projects. The SJA community can now celebrate the completion of our new gathering space and acknowledge the hard work and dedication that members of SJA brought forth in this effort to improve the physical campus of our parish. The financial investment speaks to the generosity of the SJA community.

In the past year, our nation has heard a great deal about an entirely different building project. We are well aware of the need for some politicians and some of our citizens who support the construction of a physical wall, to keep our borders "safe." It is clearly an entirely different attitude and spirit than the welcome which was extended to all of our ancestors who have come to embrace America as their homeland over the years .

To continue the building project metaphor, I can't help but think about our SJA community whose true success has always been building something that will not only last, but actually make a difference in the lives of human beings around the world - no brick and mortar necessary! SJA parishioners are expert builders of open doorways, welcoming everyone wherever they are on their journey and ensuring that we all have a place at the table.

SJA parishioners are also expert builders of floors that provide opportunity as well as sustainability to countless programs and partnerships that impact the lives thousands of human beings, both locally and internationally.

It is my privilege and honor to acknowledge another building project that the SJA community has been involved in for the last eighteen years. Arm In Arm In Africa, one of our Sustaining Partnerships, will be the focus of our celebration at all of the masses next weekend, Nov. 18 - 19. It is an honor for me to embrace and celebrate the two loves of my life: the SJA community and our ongoing, eighteen year relationship with our brothers and sisters in South Africa. I look forward to providing you with a more detailed understanding of our shared community organizing efforts, and how integral the spiritual and financial support of SJA is to the success and future of Arm In Arm In Africa. The SJA community has been a doorway of justice and compassion which continues to touch the lives of hundreds of our family members in South Africa.

I also want to express my gratitude to the administration of SJA for welcoming me once a year to update you on the mission of Arm In Arm In Africa and for being able to ask you for your ongoing and much needed financial support. Your financial contribution to the mission of Arm In Arm In Africa, a 501(c)3, is 100% tax deductible. You can learn more in advance about our programs and have the option of making your contribution online at www.aiaia.org. There will also be volunteers with envelopes to assist you in making a donation. A donation by check can be made payable to AIAIA.

Fr. James Cassidy (continues from page 1)

I am fully aware that we live in a parish and a community that asks us to stretch our charitable dollars, particularly this year. We are blessed with so many worthy causes. I want to close with a brief quote from Dorothy Day, founder of the Catholic Worker movement:

"We cannot love God unless we love each other, and to love, we must know each other. We know God in the breaking of the bread, and we know each other in the breaking of the bread and we are not alone anymore. Heaven is a banquet and life is a banquet, too, even with a crust, where there is companionship. We have all known the long loneliness and we have learned that the only solution is love and that love comes with community."

Thank you for choosing Arm In Arm In Africa as one of your end of the year charitable contributions. The only building permit required is our continued passion and commitment to cooperatively building a better world. I look forward, as always, to "breaking bread" with you next weekend as we celebrate our eighteenth year of being "Arm In Arm" with our South African brothers and sisters.

Fr. James Cassidy, President, Arm In Arm In Africa
